

The Quest for Security: Protection Without Protectionism and the Challenge of Global Governance

By Joseph E. Stiglitz, Mary Kaldor

Columbia University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Quest for Security: Protection Without Protectionism and the Challenge of Global Governance, Joseph E. Stiglitz, Mary Kaldor, The essays in this collection boldly confront the quest for security arising from the social, economic, environmental, and political crises and transformations of our century. Joseph E. Stiglitz and Mary Kaldor begin with an expansive, balanced analysis of the global landscape and the factors contributing to the growth of insecurity. Whereas earlier studies have touched on how globalization has increased economic insecurity and how geopolitical changes may have contributed to military insecurity, this volume looks for some common threads: in a globalized world without a global government, with a system of global governance not up to the task, how do we achieve security without looking inward and stepping back from globalization? In each of their areas of expertise, contributors seek answers to questions about how we achieve protection of those people who are most insecure without resorting to economic, military, or mafia protectionism. Some have suggested that the turmoil in the Eurozone "proves" the deficiencies in the welfare state. This book argues that the superior performance of Scandinavian countries arises from their superior...
